

Alumni Rules & Reminders

1. It is a privilege to be a CRU alumnus, not a right.
2. Alumni are not permitted to transport or be transported by consumers in their personal vehicles.
3. Alumni are not permitted to ask residents or staff for money, cigarettes or any other possessions/services or to take money from residents for any reason. Any alumni in violation of this rule will be banned from the CRU for an indeterminate period.
4. Any alumnus who makes sexual advances/innuendos/ or attempts to have a relationship of a sexual manner with a current resident will be banned from the CRU for an indeterminate period.
5. Any alumni doing laundry at the CRU will be banned from the facility for an indeterminate period. However, proper hygiene must be maintained (clean clothes, clean body) and if the requirement is not met, the individual will be asked to leave for the day.
6. Any alumni attempting to control the television or its use will be banned for an indeterminate period.
7. Alumni are expected to set an example for residents and are expected to complete chores as assigned by the psychiatric specialists or other staff members. There is to be no sleeping while in the building. Alumni violating this rule will be asked to leave for that day, and repeated violations could result in being banned from the property for an indeterminate period of time.
8. Any alumni coming onto the CRU property while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs will be banned for an indeterminate period of time.
9. Due to health code regulations, alumni are not permitted in the kitchen without staff supervision for any reason, including to obtain or wash utensils, to use the microwave or to get ice. Alumni violating this rule will be banned from property for an indeterminate period time.
10. Due to ongoing concerns regarding contraband in the CRU, alumni may be subject to searches from time to time. If an alumni refuses to consent to a search, s/he will be asked to leave the CRU property.
11. Whenever a group is held in the CRU day area, alumni present must either attend the group and participate or wait on the patio outside. No coffee, phone use, sitting on the couches, etc. will be permitted while group is in session.
12. Due to HIPPA regulations, cell phones may not be used while alumni are on the unit. Any alumnus violating this rule will be banned for an indeterminate period.
13. All alumni agree to respect the confidentiality of all residents. Name of residents and other confidential information will not be disclosed to others inside or outside of this program.
14. Violation of any of the above rules (or any other rules enacted) may be grounds for permanently banning alumni from the CRU.
